DESCRIPTION

Agropoli, the sea tranquility and privacy in the modern terraced villa

What could be better than starting the summer season by visiting what could become your seaside villa? The location is definitely one of the first things to evaluate and here ' choice could not be more apt. We are in Agropoli, a fantastic place to explore because of its strategic location, perched on a promontory overlooking the Gulf of Salerno the town began to develop beyond the walls only during the nineteenth century thus keeping its ancient center and much of the city walls intact. It is a much sought-after tourist resort not only for its historical heritage but also for its location since it lies within the National Park of Cilento, Vallo di Diano and Alburni. But it will be the shade of blue of this crystal-clear sea and its golden sandy beaches that will make you realize you have finally arrived home. But today we have come to discover a charming terraced villa characterized by a truly breathtaking sea view. Perfect for those who are looking for a modern residence with well-defined spaces and high-quality finishes. Past the garden, where we also find the well, we are greeted by a porch ideal for outdoor dining, perfect for enjoying the sea breeze. From here we have direct access to the living area, a large open space with open kitchen, living room and relaxation area designed to combine comfort and functionality. The apartment is developed all on one floor and so we find the beautiful room, with en-suit bathroom, embellished with gray Venetian stucco and sanitary ware with modern lines including a comfortable tub....
