DESCRIPTION

3 Bedrooms Apartment in the Skyline , incredible 360° views over Milano

An historical Milanese Tower designed by the famous architect Melchiorre Bega. Built in reinforced concrete and with continuous glass and aluminium façades, its load-bearing structure is almost totally hidden, giving it an absolut elegance with the perfect proportions of its volumes, the simplicity of its lines and structural rise. Bright and large apartments with windows on two sides. The door opens onto the living area with open kitchen, lounge and dining table for eight. The lounge is furnished with a double two-seater sofa, including sofa bed with double mattress, footrest, table, double wall bookcase, with TV stand and Smart TV. The kitchen has everything you could need, with a recirculating filter hood, induction hobs, upright fridge freezer, electric and microwave oven, dishwasher, kettle, toaster and coffee machine. There is also a wardrobe that can be used as a pantry. The master bedroom with en-suite bathroom comprises a double bed with headboard in flame-resistant leatherette, wall-mounted reading lights, a wardrobe with two sliding doors and a writing desk with drawers. The bathroom with window has a sink with cupboard and wide mirror, floating fixtures and shower stall with large shower head. The entrance leads to a corridor with a large wardrobe wall, that take you to the other two bedrooms and a bathroom. Both rooms have two single beds (90x200 cm) with double bedside tables and wall-mounted lamps, large wardrobe and writing desk. The bathroom has a sink, floating fixtures and a jacuzzi tub. A passageway contains a washing machine and space for laundry. All flats are equipped with a safe.
