DESCRIPTION

Majestic and refined mansion in noble Cherasco

A jewel set in one of the most renowned towns of the Langhe, a gem in absolute privacy of unique elegance and refinement. As soon as one crosses the front door of this prestigious palace that finds its ancient origins in the year 1740, a noble courtyard reveals the tenor of the entire dwelling, which is spread over two levels enveloping the courtyard itself. The property, which has regained a renewed splendor thanks to a major conservative renovation with the recovery of extraordinary frescoes, shows in each of its rooms the love and taste in the choice of materials, from upholstery to curtains and furnishings, always in perfect balance between majesty and stylish details. The mansion unfolds dynamically and surprisingly, as in a noble palace with several wings: one wing of the ground floor is dedicated to the summer living area, with the succession of finely furnished spaces such as: dining area, kitchen, patio. The opposite wing, on the other hand, is dedicated to the guest area, recreation rooms and laundry area. On the second floor of the same wing is the living area, where one almost has the feeling of being inside a Relais Chateaux, with its succession of spacious lounges full of charm. On the opposite side is the sleeping area, with two elegant bedrooms and a bathroom overlooking the long corridor that leads to the majestic master bedroom of unique taste, with en suite bathroom. Completing the property is the large and charming cellar, intact and with foundations dating back to the 1400s, as well as a spacious and well-organized garage. History, confidentiality, elegance, privacy: a unique mix that characterizes this exclusive noble residence, set in the heart of the prestigious Langhe.
