Restored historic house for sale in Borgagne

If you want to immerse yourself in the true essence of Salento and experience the feeling that time has stopped, a must stop is Borgagne, one of Italy's authentic villages, a hidden treasure rich in history, traditions and authenticity. Borgagne's natural location is perfect for admiring other Salento beauties as it is only a few kilometers from the wonderful Adriatic coast that encloses tourist resorts and beaches of breathtaking beauty, well-known are the striking Grotta della Poesia a site of rare beauty with a natural pool carved out of the rock, the cliffs and stacks shaped by the wind of Torre Sant'Andrea and the famous Torre dell'Orso with the stacks of the Two Sisters symbol of the area. Living in Borgagne means choosing the quiet of the hinterland with the sea at your fingertips, and we at Temino Premium Properties want to tell you about and offer for sale a charming historic home, a tower from the '500s, carefully restored and transformed into an accommodation facility that offers the opportunity to stay in an environment that preserves the charm and authenticity of the past. Constructed of local stone, the building is distinguished by its arched doorway that opens onto a communal courtyard where an ancient well, old "stacks" for water collection and stone benches take you back in time. The tower holds 4 housing units designed to offer comfort and privacy: Three apartments in perfect Provençal style were conceived in the tower: the first, on the ground floor with a double bedroom, living room with kitchenette and bathroom with shower presents a disengaged facing to the common courtyard; the second, on the second floor consists of a living room with sofa bed, a large bedroom with balcony, a kitchen with access to a beautiful equipped terrace and bathroom with shower box; the third, located in the most characteristic part of the tower perfectly preserves the typical Salento vaults with exposed stone and the original flooring and we also find a large and ancient stone fireplace...
