DESCRIPTION

Sixth Sense I AC collection luxury stay in the village

Shrouded in a rarefied aura of beauty and silence, Sesto Senso is much more than a residence: it is an exclusive living experience in the heart of the Upper Camonica Valley, in one of the most authentic and prestigious views of the Ponte di Legno area. Located in the renowned resort of Poia, at the foot of the majestic medieval castle and framed by green alpine pastures and imposing peaks, this residence represents the perfect balance between unspoiled nature and signature design. Here, every detail is designed to welcome, to pamper, to inspire. The property is distinguished by its impeccable style, where natural materials meet contemporary elegance in a harmonious and sophisticated dialogue. The mountain wood, the clean lines of the custom-made furniture and the light filtering through every window create a warm, refined and enveloping atmosphere. At the entrance, an elegant atrium introduces the spacious living area: an intimate and bright living room, furnished with comfortable sofas and designer armchairs, designed for moments of relaxation and conviviality. The open kitchen is fully equipped and framed by a charming dining area, which opens onto a private balcony with panoramic views, ideal for slow breakfasts or sunset toasts. On the ground floor, two spacious double bedrooms offer a haven of quiet and refinement. The first gives double panoramic views that flood the room with natural light. The second, enhanced by a private balcony, invites moments of meditation with your gaze lost between woods and sky. Between the two rooms is a designer bathroom, with a walk-in shower and integrated washing machine, perfect for practical and comfortable daily use. An elegant staircase leads to the loft, a true suspended nest with two full-size beds, perfect for accommodating up to four people discreetly but comfortably...
