DESCRIPTION

Beachfront penthouse and super penthouse with infinity pool, Lungomare G. Galilei, Gallipoli

Gallipoli, Lungomare G. Galilei, in the evocative scenery of the Salento sea, rises an exclusive residence that combines modern design, comfort and a spectacular view of the sea. The property is on two levels, with spacious, bright and finely finished rooms. Located on the fourth floor of a newly built condominium, it consists of large living area with large windows that frame the view, giving a unique experience of light and space. The elegant and contemporary kitchen integrates perfectly with the dining area and living room, creating a convivial and refined environment. The sleeping area has two double bedrooms, laundry room, two bathrooms and a terrace behind. The suspended staircase in oak and glass leads to the upper floor, where there is a sea-view living area with access to the panoramic terrace equipped with an infinity pool: an ideal place from which to admire the infinite blue of the sea of Gallipoli. Completing the super penthouse: eat-in kitchen, large terrace behind, master bedroom and bathroom. Valuable materials, state-of-the-art facilities and high-level finishes make this penthouse a unique dwelling, ideal for those who want to experience the sea in style and absolute comfort. Carport included. A4 The name Gallipoli (Caddhrìpuli in Gallipoli dialect) comes from the Greek "Kalé Polis," the meaning of which is "beautiful city." The city, located along the western coast of the Salento peninsula, juts out over the Ionian Sea with a coastline of about 20km that also includes the localities of Punta Pizzo, Baia verde, Rivabella and Lido Conchiglie, and is divided into two parts: the suburb, which houses the more modern part of the city, and the historic center, located on an island connected to the mainland by a 17th-century bridge. Of great historical and naturalistic importance is the Island of St. Andrew, about a mile off the historic center, characterized by the presence of wild animals, such as the Corsican Gull...
