DESCRIPTION

SELVAZZANO - The place where dreams take shape

A few minutes from Padua, hidden among the greenery and quiet, a unique farmhouse awaits you, completely renovated, capable of making you feel immediately at home. A place where the warmth of tradition meets the refinement of modern living, giving life to a timeless elegance. The large and bright spaces welcome light and silence, creating environments designed for daily well-being, to share precious moments and rediscover the pleasure of slowing down. Every detail has been taken care of to offer comfort, style and harmony. The house is equipped with the latest technologies: underfloor heating, solar panels and a home automation system transform the home into an intelligent, efficient and sustainable space, where luxury is lived in a natural way. Outside, a private garden provides an authentic oasis of peace: the ideal place for outdoor dining, family games or simply to breathe in the beauty of nature. Here you don't just buy a home, but a way of life. Let yourself be conquered by an atmosphere that excites, welcomes and surprises. Currently the property is in the unfinished state, a condition that allows you to customize all the elements that will give shape and life to your ideal home. Contact us for a visit and discover what it means to call this place home.
