DESCRIPTION

Designer duplex penthouse in Brickell with panoramic views and signature design

In the beating heart of Brickell, this extraordinary two-level penthouse represents one of the most sophisticated expressions of contemporary luxury in Miami. Completely redesigned by Togu Design and expertly crafted by high-end builder Sabal, the residence spans more than 600 square meters of impeccable interiors, offering a perfect balance of aesthetics, technology and absolute comfort. The rooms, featuring spectacular six-meter double-height ceilings and floor-to-ceiling windows, provide unparalleled visual continuity with panoramic views of the bay and city skyline. Fine black walnut floors run throughout the home, lending warmth and elegance to every space. The property features five bedrooms, six bathrooms and two half baths, as well as dedicated office space, a private gymnasium and cinema room—a complete layout designed for an exclusive and dynamic lifestyle. At the heart of the home is a dramatic designer open kitchen, equipped with high-end appliances and flanked by a separate service kitchen, ideal for discreet and efficient entertaining. The master suite stands out as an authentic private retreat, with a large spa-like bathroom and custom-designed closets by California Closets. An advanced home automation system Savant manages lighting, climate and entertainment, ensuring a state-of-the-art living experience. Residents benefit from exclusive amenities, including a rooftop rooftop pool and solarium, semi-Olympic pool, private lounge and fully equipped fitness center. Located in the epicenter of Brickell, the property enjoys immediate access to world-class restaurants, boutiques, and nightlife. A unique residence where architecture, design, and views merge into an uncompromising living experience.
