Iconic Seafront Estate in the Legendary Golden Beach

Welcome to 680 Golden Beach Drive, an extraordinary property located within the exclusive private community of Golden Beach, one of the most prestigious and private residential addresses in all of Florida. This authentic legacy estate represents a rare opportunity to own one of the most alluring properties in celebrated Golden Beach, an exclusive community consisting of a few private residences, pristine beaches and a level of privacy that is virtually unparalleled. Situated on a lot of nearly 29,000 square feet, the property enjoys approximately 135 feet of open waterfront, offering spectacular water views and a privileged connection to South Florida's most exclusive coastal lifestyle. The 9,000-square-foot main residence features imposing volumes, dramatic double-height ceilings and light-filled rooms that enhance the relationship between architecture, nature and waterfront living. The spacious reception spaces are designed to elegantly accommodate both daily life and the most exclusive private events, creating a refined and timeless atmosphere. Among the property's rarest and most sought-after elements is a magnificent professional clay tennis court, lit for evening play, an extremely rare feature in Florida's luxury real estate market. The property also offers: Spacious private waterfront Mature, lush tropical gardens Outdoor spaces ideal for entertainment and relaxation Open views of the water Maximum privacy and security Privileged access to beach and boating life Living at Golden Beach means access to a unique and private lifestyle, with exclusive privileges including: Private beach for residents Dedicated community police service Private parks and manicured landscaped areas Scenic boulevards lined with royal palm trees Residential environment of absolute tranquility More than just a residence, this property represents a rare living experience, intended for those who wish to own an iconic address in one of the most exclusive waterfront communities in the United States. A true trophy property that combines prestige, privacy and a one-of-a-kind lifestyle in the heart of Golden Beach. Contact us to receive confidential information or arrange an exclusive private...
