DESCRIPTION

Dimora di Victor

In the heart of Nardò's historic center, on one of the most picturesque and distinctive streets of the old town, stands this enchanting, charming residence—perfect for those seeking an authentic experience in Salento, blending tradition with contemporary comfort. Located on Vico San Biagio, the house opens through an elegant wooden door that leads into a secluded and charming world. Beyond the entrance lies a lush garden, rich in traditional Salento elements such as capase, antique farm tools, and stone details that tell the story and capture the soul of this land. The house spans three levels. On the ground floor, a striking open-concept space houses the sleeping area with a double bed and a unique “open” bathroom positioned in the center of the room—modern in style yet perfectly integrated into the historic structure. The wall niches feature furnishings carefully and tastefully restored, such as an old lathe or terracotta jars, which create a warm and authentic atmosphere. Heading up to the first floor, you'll find a spacious living area with a fully equipped kitchen, a dining table, a relaxation area, and direct access to a small private terrace. Here, too, there is a second modern and functional bathroom to ensure maximum comfort for guests. The second floor holds the true gem of the house: a large panoramic terrace overlooking the rooftops of the historic center, complete with an outdoor kitchenette and perfect for al fresco breakfasts, sunset aperitifs, or moments of pure relaxation under the Salento sky. The location is ideal: just a short walk away, you'll find Piazza Salandra, the Cathedral, traditional restaurants, artisan shops, and culturally rich sites. In just a few minutes by car, you can reach Salento's most beautiful beaches, such as Santa Caterina, Santa Maria al Bagno, and Porto Selvaggio. A home that embodies the essence of Salento, perfect for those seeking a stay immersed in art, the sea, and tradition, in the authentic heart of Nardò.
