DESCRIPTION

ACQUAMARINE SUITE

Overlooking the sea of Gallipoli, Suite Acquamarine is a charming retreat designed as an intimate and sensory sanctuary, where the blue of the Ionian Sea meets the finest in wellness, and every detail invites you to slow down, breathe, and let yourself be enveloped. The colors of water and light inspire the entire space: aquamarine hues, luminous surfaces, and iridescent reflections that evoke the movement of the waves, creating an enveloping, elegant, and deeply relaxing atmosphere. The spacious and harmonious bedroom welcomes guests with a stunning double bed and soft lighting that cascades from above like a starry sky, transforming every evening into a suspended, intimate, almost cinematic moment. The beating heart of the suite is the spectacular private wellness area, where a whirlpool tub is set within a visually striking environment: onyx-effect finishes in marine hues, perimeter lighting, and interplay of light and water flowing like a waterfall, creating a complete sensory experience. Next to it, the chromotherapy shower completes the relaxation ritual, offering a wellness journey that engages both body and mind in a constant interplay of light, color, and silence. Every detail is designed to transform your stay into an exclusive experience: premium materials, designer furnishings, absolute comfort, and a constant sense of privacy and intimacy. Even the simplest moments—a morning coffee, a toast in the illuminated bathtub, an evening in front of the TV after a day at the beach—become precious moments, experienced in a space that stirs the emotions. Staying in the Acquamarine Suite means indulging in the luxury of time, tranquility, and well-being, just a few steps from the sea in Gallipoli. A place where water is not just a landscape, but an experience, an atmosphere, a breath of fresh air. A suite designed for couples, for special moments, and for those who wish to experience the Mediterranean not only with their eyes, but with all their senses. When you book with us, you'll also be greeted upon arrival with a complimentary bottle of prosecco, designed to kick off your stay with a toast of pure lightheartedness.
