DESCRIPTION

Appartamento Stapane

Located in Galatone, in the province of Lecce, in the heart of Salento, this spacious apartment is the ideal choice for those looking for a roomy, bright, and well-located vacation home, just a few minutes from Nardò, Santa Maria al Bagno, Santa Caterina, and Gallipoli. The entryway opens onto a large living room with handcrafted mosaic flooring, a distinctive feature that enhances the home's character. This space, designed as a living and relaxation area, is furnished with shabby chic-style furniture and two large sofas, perfect for accommodating families or groups during their stay in Salento. The living area includes a comfortable dining room with a TV nook and a fully equipped kitchenette, ideal for those who wish to enjoy their vacation home in Galatone with complete independence. The spaces are functional and well-laid out, perfect for lunches and dinners in a cozy, family-friendly setting. The sleeping area consists of three spacious, separate double bedrooms, each equipped with a closet, dresser, and nightstands. Their layout along a wide hallway ensures privacy and comfort, making the apartment perfect for short-term rentals in Salento, whether for families or groups of friends. The apartment features two bathrooms: one with a tub/shower, ideal for relaxation, and a second bathroom with a shower and full amenities. The property also includes a practical laundry room with a washing machine and sink, designed for longer, more functional stays. The spacious balconies surrounding the property, accessible from every room through French doors, ensure plenty of natural light and offer pleasant outdoor spaces. Located on the second and top floor, the apartment also boasts a panoramic view of Galatone, making it the perfect choice for those seeking a vacation home in Salento that's well-connected to the main destinations along the Ionian coast.
