DESCRIPTION

Frontemare Apartment

Overlooking the sea directly, along one of the most picturesque stretches of Gallipoli's waterfront, Frontemare Apartment is a charming retreat designed for those who dream of experiencing the Mediterranean firsthand, with the horizon flowing into the living spaces and accompanying every moment of their stay. Here, light takes center stage: in the morning, it filters in gently, reflecting off the light-colored surfaces, while in the evening it turns warm and golden, blending with the colors of the sunset mirrored on the Ionian Sea. From the living area—which features a kitchen and a living space that also includes a comfortable double sofa bed—the view through the large panoramic window stretches out into the infinite blue of the sea, offering that sense of peace and freedom that only a true beachfront location can provide. The sleeping area welcomes you with an intimate and cozy atmosphere, featuring a double bed—ideal for letting yourself be lulled by the slow rhythm of the waves and enjoying a deep, restful sleep. Every space is designed to strike a balance between contemporary comfort and understated elegance, in a continuous dialogue between interior and exterior, between silence and the breath of the sea. Even moments of daily well-being become part of the experience: natural light, refined materials, and attention to detail transform every gesture into a small ritual, to be savored calmly, as if in a private spa overlooking the horizon. Staying at Frontemare Apartments means treating yourself to the privilege of waking up to a view of the sea, experiencing Gallipoli just a short walk from the historic center, and returning each evening to a bright home where time seems to slow down. An exclusive retreat for those seeking authentic experiences, beauty, and that rare sensation of truly feeling like you're in the front row overlooking the Mediterranean.
