DESCRIPTION

Villa Rudiae

Just a few minutes from the historic center of Lecce and 700 meters from the Rudiae Archaeological Park—a hidden gem in the Salento countryside—Villa Rudiae offers a first-class stay in a setting of rare natural and historical beauty. Surrounded by olive trees, palm trees, and lemon groves, and protected by dry-stone walls made of Lecce stone, it is the ideal choice for those seeking a luxury villa near Lecce without sacrificing the privacy and tranquility of the countryside. Villa Rudiae accommodates up to five guests in three bedrooms: the master bedroom with a lighted walk-in closet and en suite bathroom, a second double bedroom, and a bedroom with a queen-size bed, each with a private bathroom. Three-meter-high doors, high-end finishes, and an attention to detail rarely found outside of high-end hotels. The heart of the villa is the large open-concept living area, where white wooden beams with integrated linear LED strips and floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors create a unique atmosphere, blurring the line between indoors and outdoors. The Dekton island kitchen—featuring a double refrigerator, double freezer, double dishwasher, and wine cellar—opens directly onto the garden and pool. The billiards room with a fireplace completes the common areas, offering an entertainment space of rare charm. Outside, the 14.5 × 6-meter pool dominates the geometric center of the property, flanked by sun loungers, a barbecue, and lounge areas under gazebos. The garden's twilight lighting transforms the property at sunset into a scene of extraordinary beauty. For the little ones, a playground and foosball table round out the outdoor spaces. Air conditioning in every room, a video surveillance and alarm system, an electric car charger, a fully equipped laundry room, and covered parking spaces: every need is anticipated, every detail attended to. Just a few minutes away are the Baroque center of Lecce, the beaches of the Ionian and Adriatic Seas, and the most picturesque villages of Salento. Villa Rudiae is the perfect starting point for exploring an extraordinary region—and the ideal retreat to return to every evening.
