DESCRIPTION

Suites Luigia

Located on the first floor of the historic Palazzo Stapane and accessible via the grand staircase in the atrium, the Luigia Suites welcome guests into a bright and refined atmosphere, where the charm of period architecture blends with the extraordinary proximity to the sea at Santa Maria al Bagno, which can be felt with every step. The two spacious and harmonious double rooms offer airy and quiet spaces: one with a window, the other with a romantic little balcony, through which the light of the village and the Ionian breeze stream in, creating a sense of intimacy and well-being that accompanies a restful sleep. Between the bedrooms, an elegant breakfast nook serves as the gathering spot for the day, where the aroma of coffee and the tranquility of the building invite you to start the morning at a leisurely pace or treat yourself to a rejuvenating break in total comfort. The modern and functional bathroom, along with air conditioning in every room, ensures a pleasant stay in every season, striking a perfect balance between historic charm and contemporary comfort. The emotional heart of the Luigia Suites is the private terrace, overlooking the main street that leads to the splendid little square and the sea: an intimate space where you can enjoy breakfast al fresco, relax upon returning from the beach, or sip an aperitif at sunset while watching village life unfold and letting yourself be enveloped by the Mediterranean atmosphere. Suites Luigia invite you to experience the most authentic heart of Santa Maria al Bagno, just a short walk from the Ionian Sea, in a charming residence where light, sea, and history blend into an intense, elegant, and deeply immersive experience. To make your stay even more comfortable, Palazzo Stapane provides guests with a reserved parking space—for exclusive use and included in the rate—so you can enjoy Santa Maria al Bagno with complete freedom and peace of mind.
